

Seth Abrams, CPA

PRINCIPAL, TAX

As a Principal in the tax department of GH&I, Seth Abrams' detailed and analytical approach goes beyond helping clients stay in compliance with current tax regulations. He adds value by leading them through comprehensive tax planning and solving complicated tax issues.

Mr. Abrams works with clients across a number of industries, including professional services, health care and medical practices, real estate, forestry, entertainment and hospitality. He has experience with a number of entities, from closely-held businesses to trusts, partnerships and S-corps. He also enjoys working with high net worth individuals, steering them through tax and estate planning and analyzing their monthly financial statements.

Mr. Abrams also has experience working with clients who have overseas interests. He has many clients based in the Caribbean including the U.S. Virgin Islands. Specifically, he works with both businesses and individuals regarding their U.S. Virgin Islands taxation and Economic Development Commission (EDC) benefits. Additionally, he helps foreign companies open shop in the United States and assists U.S. parent companies to navigate tax laws for their subsidiaries in other countries.

CAREER HIGHLIGHTS

Before joining GH&I in 2000, Seth was an enterprise risk consultant at Deloitte & Touche where he led a team in providing quality assurance services to one of the firm's largest clients.

EDUCATION AND AFFILIATIONS

Mr. Abrams is a Certified Public Accountant (CPA) and member of the American Institute of Certified Public Accountants (AICPA) and Georgia Society of Certified Public Accountants (GSCPA). He further serves as a member of the Technology Association of Georgia (TAG) and three of GH&I's industry groups, including technology, health care, and construction and real estate. He is active in the UGA Alumni Association and is an executive board member of A Wish for Wendy, an event that he and friends initiated in 2000 to benefit the Cystic Fibrosis Foundation.

Mr. Abrams earned his B.B.A. with a concentration in accounting from the University of Georgia (UGA). Upon graduation, he continued his studies at UGA, earning a Master of Accountancy in taxation in 1998. While at UGA, he was a member of Tau Epsilon Phi and Beta Alpha Psi.
